19.0 Tribunal and Court Appearances

19.1 Our standard full day rate is £880.00 per day or part thereof, plus return travel, accommodation & sundry expenses

20.0 Cancellation Fees for Tribunal & Court Appearances

20.1 Where we provide Clinically Commissioned and Tribunal – directed interventions we are contractually obliged to give a minimum of 12 weeks’ notice for leave of absence.

This is because;

- Clinics and sessions are limited and are booked well in advance and becoming more so with the NHS "Choose and Book" system.
- Academic terms run for a period not less than 12 weeks
- Time is needed either to cancel and re-book appointments, particularly intensive interventions which require 3 – 4 weeks of 3 – 4 hours per day intervention by the same practitioner, in addition, many of our service users travel from overseas and we have to provide assurances of availability and Overseas Visa support.

- Once a date has been booked as leave for court attendance, it is not usually possible for us to re-instate either NHS or private work with less than 12 weeks’ notice. Therefore it would be justifiable to bill the full rate if a court case is cancelled with less than 12 weeks’ notice. However we recognise that this is not customary practice, and work to the following schedule:
